

Lincolnshire at Christmas

Festive fun and seasonal sparkle are around every corner in Lincolnshire. Enjoy a taste of Christmas past and present with our suggested itinerary; or build in a visit to Lincoln's Christmas Market, which is the largest in Europe, into a longer stay in the county.

Tour of Lincoln Cathedral

Lincoln Cathedral is one of Europe's finest medieval Cathedrals and a magnificent backdrop to the Christmas Market. Bespoke roof top tours can be planned into your visit to give a spectacular view across the busy streets of the Christmas Market.

Lincoln Castle

A popular tourist attraction, the Christmas Market takes place in and around Lincoln Castle. It offers a wonderful seasonal atmosphere and a delightful shopping opportunity.

Doddington Hall

With its unique Christmas shop, home-grown Christmas and beautiful decorations, a trip to one of the country's finest Elizabethan homes is a perfect way to kick-start Christmas. And for a taste of Christmas visit their farm shop for all the trimmings of a Lincolnshire Christmas dinner. www.doddingtonhall.com

Christmas in Stamford

One of England's finest Georgian towns, Stamford's delightful stone architecture and open spaces create a unique charm – and Christmas activities add an extra seasonal sparkle.

Christmas dinner at Burghley House

Lunch at the Orangery, Burghley House, which is one of the largest and grandest houses of the Elizabethan age. www.burghley.co.uk

Tastes of Lincolnshire Food and Drink Fair

Stock up on tasty Lincolnshire treats for Christmas at one of Lincolnshire's largest food fairs. A taste of Lincolnshire is a tourism initiative which highlights locally sourced and produced food and drink. The 2009 event takes place on Saturday 28th and Sunday 29th November 2009. www.tastesoflincolnshire.com

And not forgetting.....

A tasty visit to Hansen's specialty Chocolate House at Folkingham. Their handmade chocolates are lovingly created in the heart of a Lincolnshire village. See them made and have with goodie in your bag.
